THEME EXPLANATION

IN the year 1607 the first permanent English colony was founded on American soil at Jamestown, Virginia. Since that date 324 years have folded themselves into History. A gaunt 104 colonists have evolved into a massive population of 122,000,000 people. A nation of 3,025,600 square miles of territory has been chained by the powerful bonds of the most enlightened civilization on earth. A glorious Industrial Revolution has left the modern American almost undisputed master of the forces of nature. The Utopia of progress seems veritably to have been attained.

And yet—standing back of all this progress, giving the thread of vitality to this whole movement—is an obscure figure, the American Farmer. A giant in service, he has been a dwarf in recognition. Indispensable to our existence, he has been a stranger to our society. Deserving great praise and credit, he has toiled without honor. He has existed that we might live!

Therefore, conscious of this great debt of the American people to the Farmers of the nation and in deep appreciation of their great service, the staff of this ninth volume of The Parrot has chosen as the theme for this book that greatest of American industries—AGRICULTURE.

Floyd is one of the most accommodating members of our class. He has been ever ready to take us on an "Ad-seeking jaunt," and the PARROT is indebted to him.

To sleep is his favorite pastime; he is always ready to take a nap, and even indulges in class if the opportunity presents itself. We wish for him luck and much of it throughout his life.

Frances Erwin

Called "FRECKLES"—Is "Admirable"

Olympian Literary Society (4), Physical Education Club (4).

Frances has only been with us this year, but we have found her to be kind, congenial, and conscientious. After all is said and done, about the greatest asset that any girl can claim is the ability to make and hold friends. This Frances possesses.

Samuel Miller Houck

Young Tar Heel Farmers' Club (1), Glee Club (2-3-4), Physical Education Club (3-4), Hi-Y Club (4), Vogue Literary Society (4), Baseball (2-3-4).

Perhaps "Stopper" will best be remembered because of his outstanding record in athletics. He has been the "pivot" of all of our sports, and has been a good one. "Bus" has ambitions to go to Carolina, and we know it won't be long 'til he'll be making his mark there. Here's to you, "Bus"!

Lillian Moose

Called "GENE"—Is "Resolute"

Secretary and Treasurer Candy Club (1-2), Civics Club (1), Jac's Club (3), Girls' Physical Education Club (4), Olympian Literary Society (4), Librarian (4).

Lillian is candid, positive and frank. She has a little of the "take it or leave it" style in her make-up that renders her all the more attractive—for who does not love independence?

Her dramatic ability was well demonstrated in her portrayal of the character, Mrs. Boise, in our senior play. Good luck to you, Lillian!

Lorene Propst

Called "BEAN"—Is "Serene"

Home Craft Club (2), G. N. K. Club (3), Vogue Literary Society (4).

Lorene is rather reserved, but those of us who know her have found out that she is a good sport, and that a quantity of mischief lurks behind the wall of her reserve. Truly, although "Bean" is one of our smallest members, there is not a girl in the school with a bigger heart.

He is untiring in his efforts in his school work, athletics, and other activities, in being a dependable fellow and a faithful friend. His ability to work and willingness to serve is shown by the many offices he has held and the activities he has led.

Martha Gaynelle Rogers

Called "GAY"—Is "Peppy"

Vice-President Jac's Club (3), Glee Club (4), Olympian Literary Society (4), Secretary Class (4), Librarian (4).

It seems so trite to say "To know her is to love her," but it is the truth when speaking of "Gay." Her sweet, unselfish disposition is her greatest charm. 'Nuf Sed!

Luther Lynn Safrit

Called "SAFRIT"—Is "Easy-going"

Physical Education Club (1-2-4), Glee Club (1-2-3), Young Tar Heel Farmers' Club (2), Vogue Literary Society (4), Baseball (1-2-3-4).

Evelyn is jolly and clever; her tongue, like a brooklet, goes on forever. She has her own opinions on subjects, and how she does hold on to them! She loves her fun, and is always ready for anything that calls for a little bit of mischief. Our best wishes go with you, Evelyn.

James Franklin Smith

Called "JIM"—Is "Sheiky"

Civics Club (1), Physical Education Club (3-4), Football (3-4), Captain Football Team (4), Basketball (4), Baseball (2-3-4), Le Cercle Francais (3), Olympian Literary Society (4).

"Jim" has become quite a fixture around F. L. S., and how the students in general, and the girls in particular, will get along without him we are unable to imagine. Our rivals in sports, even Landis, will miss him; we hope that his athletic achievements will continue.

Revis Walter Stroupe

Called "STROUPE"—Is "Witty"

Football (4), Physical Education (4), Hi-Y (4), Treasurer Hi-Y (4), Vogue Literary Society (4).

"Stroupe" is congenial and friendly, and is well liked by all his classmates. He takes a practical joke so well that someone is always playing one on him, especially the "Dorm" boys. He has serious thoughts occasionally, and we are sure he has some high ambitions he hasn't told us about.

Robert Clyde Whitley

Called "ITALY"—Is "Talented"

President Recitation and Declamation Club (1), Secretary and Treasurer Military Club (2), Vice-President Archery Club (3), Vogue Literary Society (4), Won State Tenor Solo Contest (1), Member Quartet (1-2-3), Cheer Leader (4), President Vogue Literary Society (4).

We are looking to Clyde to bring fame to the Class of '31 by his gift of song. We hope some day to "tune in" and hear his voice coming to us from the Metropolitan Opera House in New York City. With his ability he can not help but succeed.

Mary Naomi Winecoff

She is capable, well-poised and a true friend. Her versatile nature is well shown by the responsible positions with which her fellow students have entrusted her. She accepts responsibility and does her best at all times. When Mary leaves F. L. S.—well, a crepe will surely be hung on the door of the entrance.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

*Our high school years are ending now, the years that were so sweet,
The golden days fly one by one on eager, winged feet.
And as we go into the world as women and as men,
We know that we shall never see such care-free times again.*

*And as our thoughts turn backward over these four happy years,
Our hearts are filled with sadness and our eyes are dimmed with tears,
For we fear as we are leaving the school that we adore
We may not meet our dearest friends and classmates any more.*

*But though our tears are falling at this parting of the way,
We feel the future holds for us full many a brilliant ray,
And in the happy years to come with hopes and dreams come true
We'll always look back fondly, dear Farm Life School, to you.*

—BARBARA HAMMER.

CLASS HISTORY

REALIZING that the end of our four years of high school has come, we wish to pause a moment to give an account of our stay at F. L. S. As freshmen we thought the journey too long; but now that we have reached the goal, it seems to have been short. Our hardships have vanished, and all our pleasant memories will long linger with us.

In the fall of 1927 a group of boys and girls from Rowan, and probably other counties, gathered at the Farm Life School. In spite of our "greenness," we felt as important as anyone in the whole school.

When we were sophomores, our class reduced a little in number. This year we chose Helen James for president and Miss Blackwell and Mr. Brown for our advisors. We entertained the seniors on a picnic at Boone's cove, which everyone enjoyed very much. We had a very successful year and looked forward to the next year when we would be Juniors.

The next fall we entered school and were very happy over the fact that we were Juniors. Again our class diminished in number. As our advisors we were lucky to have Miss Jones and Mr. Wall, a new teacher, both of whom proved to be wonderful advisors. This year we chose Mary Winecoff as president. The Junior-Senior banquet held at the Yadkin Hotel, Salisbury, N. C., was an important event of this year, even more so than the presentation of "Pickles," a musical comedy, in which some of our class members played an active part.

Now we come to the end of our glorious days of high school. Many old members have dropped by the wayside, and many new ones added to our number. This year with Miss Bobbitt and Mr. Warlick as our advisors we have accomplished much. Also, we have been very fortunate in choosing Mary Winecoff for president again. We presented "Two Days to Marry" as our Senior play and helped to stage successfully "The Bells of Capistrano."

There have been a few changes made this year, also. We have a new Superintendent, Mr. Long, who has served us faithfully and done much to better the school. The gymnasium has been completed, and we have enjoyed it very much. Student Government has been established in the school and has been very successful and profitable.

Happy were our high school days! Perhaps none of our members will ever be geniuses but we hope to reach the highest pinnacles in life. We feel that we have been very fortunate in attending the Farm Life School and hope to prove ourselves worthy of it.

MARY LOUISE BROWN.

CLASS PROPHECY

I THREW down the pen in disgust. Cudgel my brains as I would, there was no response. I could think of nothing. Finally, I decided that I might as well go to bed. Certainly there was no use trying to write anything.

I slipped upstairs noiselessly and crept into bed. Holding my breath, I heard the clock strike twelve. The next instant a grey shadow glided into the room. I suppressed a scream.

"Hush," said the apparition. "I am the spirit of what is to be—the shadow of the future. If you wish, I will tell you the fate of each of your classmates. I will tell you how I see them twenty years hence."

Eagerly, I urged him to begin. He began in a soft whisper, "I will tell you all I can, but I must leave at cock-crow.

"I see your classmate, Clyde Whitley, winning great fame both in New York and abroad with his wonderful voice.

"Marquedant Feanster has become the governor of Georgia. His lady, formerly Kitty Margaret Dellinger, is winning all hearts with her charm and gracious manner.

"John Keller is the president of a large and successful bank in Philadelphia.

"Mary Louise Brown taught music at N. C. C. W. for a while, but she has returned to China Grove, and is happily married to Claude Heffner, who is now principal of The Farm Life School.

"George Fleming has given up music to become a surgeon at Bellevue Hospital.

"Hollywood has claimed Revis Stroupe. See him in his latest picture, 'Ladies Love Cave-men.'

"At Greensboro College for Women, Paulanna Cooper is teaching Latin, while Mary Winecoff is Dean of Women there.

"Ray Connell and Clarence Barnhardt are successful farmers, and Lynn Safrit is the Master Farmer of Rowan County.

"In the Senate Chamber, one of the Senators from North Carolina is Flake Reid. He is fast becoming one of the nation's great men.

"Pauline McCorkle has taken Miss Trimble's place as Home Demonstration Agent. She is doing good work in this line.

"Roy Miller is coaching football at Duke University. Hurrah for the Blue Devils!

"Luey Fisher is operating a successful dressmaking establishment. She is assisted by Edith Shue, Evelyn Corriher, and Mary Bassinger."

The shadow paused a moment. "Perhaps you have noticed columns of 'Helpful Council' in daily newspapers, by Dorothy Dix or Caroline Chatfield. One of these columns is now written by Lillian Moose who dispenses advice to the love-lorn under the name of Patricia Poindexter.

"Karl Corriher struck oil. He is now a millionaire.

"Lorene Propst and Frances Erwin are operating a beauty shop in China Grove. It is next door to a flourishing hotel managed by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kirk. Mrs. Kirk, formerly Frances Baker, is known throughout the state for her wonderful candy. She makes and sells bars known as 'Wet Smacks.'

"Paul Bost is the recently elected mayor of Landis. He is assisted by Earl Lipe.

"Evelyn Sloop, the renowned aviatrix, is now engaged in a non-stop flight around the world. Just what she is flying away from, no one knows.

"Billy Sunday and Cyclone Mack have given way to Miller Houck, the new evangelist. He is sweeping the country with his eloquence.

"Ralph Fink is a soldier of fortune and also a great philanthropist. As he follows the road, he bestows upon the world at large a great quantity of gab.

"Margaret Deal has given up a brilliant stage career to become the bride of a promising young Kannapolis business man. Every now and then she returns to China Grove to visit her old friend, Gaynelle Rogers, who broadcasts over the radio talks on 'Why Gentlemen Prefer Blondes.'

"Floyd Dickerson is still operating a filling station. He hopes to some day make enough money to buy a new car.

"James Smith has become a very prosperous bootlegger. It is to be hoped that his former classmates will honor him with their patronage."

Again the ghost paused. "And now, now I will tell you your own fate. You will"

From afar came the sound of a cock crowing. "Farewell!" breathed the spirit and departed without giving me a clue to my own future, or even giving me a chance to thank him for his timely aid.

After all, I may have dreamed it all—who knows? But then again—who knows?

—BARBARA HAMMER.

To the boys and girls of Rowan County Farm Life School, Honor is a virtue cherished most highly in all branches of school life. The Senior Class of 1931 and the Superintendent, believing that the students should have a greater voice in the operation of the school and especially in the conduct of the students, proposed to the student body that Student Self Government and the Honor System be organized and enacted in the school. This proposal met the unanimous favor of the student body. The organization was completed and the officers and members of the Council elected. Even in its first year, Student Self Government is functioning in a manner equal to the system found in our best schools and colleges.

JOKES

A Freshman went to hades onee,
A few more things to learn;
Old Satan sent him back again,
He was too green to burn.

Felix S.: "What is the date, please?"

Mr. Wolfe: "Never mind the date. The exam is more important."

Felix: "Well, I wanted to have something right on my paper."

John, seven years old, was attending his first class in geography. The teacher asked: "Who can describe the shape of the world?"

John held up his hand, and the teacher responded with, "Yes, John, you tell us the shape of the world."

His answer had a confident ring since he had no less an authority than his father. "Daddy says the world is in a bad shape."

Teacher (to boy sitting idly in school during a test): "Kerman, why are you not writing?"

Kerman: "I ain't got no pen."

Teacher: "Where's your grammar?"

Kerman: "She's dead."

What are all those men doing in a circle with their heads together? Is it a football team?

No, just a bunch of Scotchmen lighting a eigarette.

Mr. Warlick: "When was Rome built?"

James Correll: "At night."

Mr. Warlick: "Who told you that?"

James: "You did. You said Rome wasn't built in a day."

A colored lad was, strangely, strolling through a cemetery, reading the inscriptions on the tombstones. He came to one stone which read: "Not Dead, but Sleeping."

Scratching his head, the little darkey remarked, "He sure ain't foolin' nobody but hisself."

Mr. Wall: "Chester, did you do that outside reading?"

Chester: "No, it was too cold."

A little girl said to her mother: "Mama, if I grow up and get married, will I have a husband like father?"

"I don't know, dear. Very probably you will."

"And if I grow up and don't get married, will I be an old maid like Aunt Mary?"

"Perhaps," answered the mother.

The little girl thought it over for a moment. "Mother," she said, "It's a tough world for us women, ain't it?"

She Is Gone
and
We Are Glad of It

THE year 1930 is regarded by many people, as a year of depression. We see it as a blessing in disguise. Now as it is passed and has gone into history, let us look forward for better things in 1931 and make every dollar go its full length; buy just what we need, when we need it, at the lowest possible prices (Quality Considered). And when Christmas of 1931 comes we will be sitting on top of the WORLD.

You will find just such a deal at the CHINA GROVE HARDWARE COMPANY. We do not expect you to pay us the old high prices for our goods after the prices decline. As prices decline, we decline with them. Yours to Serve.

IF HE IS FAVORABLY KNOWN at the bank, he has a distinct advantage over the man who is not.

Counsel and Co-operation

MORE than any other business or professional man, the funeral director must consider the feelings of those with whom he deals. This requires not only sympathy to comply with the most trivial wishes of his patrons. In this organization we make it a rule that the patron's wish is law. Our part is not to dictate, but to counsel and co-operate.
